

Native Green Corn

Native Tomatoes
Native Cucumbers
Native Broilers
Native Squash
Native String Beans
Native Fowl
Native Lambs
Native Veal

When You Want It GOOD GO TO SOMERS
Food Specialist

National Progressive Party Call

On Tuesday Evening, July 23 at 8 o'clock

At Buckingham Memorial

There will be held a meeting for permanent organization of the Third Party movement in Norwich. Those who have signed the membership books and all who are in favor of said movement irrespective of former party affiliations are invited to be present.

The Hon. Herbert Knox Smith of Hartford, Conn., will address the meeting on the fundamental principles of the new party.

Signed

HERBERT R. BRANCHE,

of the State Committee.

MISS M. C. ADLES

Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist

Will be in Norwich all this week. Finest rooms in Eastern Connecticut.

Telephone 552-4, 1723.

AMERICAN HOUSE,

Farrel & Sanderson, Prop.
Special Rates to Theatre Troupes, Traveling Men, etc. Livery connected Shutucket Street.

DR. C. C. GILDERSLEEVE

Physician and Surgeon
OFFICE,
McGregory Bldg., 287 Main St., Suite 7-8
Hours—9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and 7-8 p. m.
Telephone 1129.

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN

Dental Surgeon
in charge of Dr. S. L. Geer's practice during his last illness.
McGregory Building, Norwich, Conn.

1647
Adam's Tavern

1861 offer to the public the finest standard brands of beer, of Europe and America, Bohemian, Pilsener, Cimbach Bavaria, Beck's, Kaiser Brewery, and others,
Scottish Ale, Guinness, Dublin Stout, & C. Imported Ginger Ale, Buckle Hill P. R. Ale, Frank Jones' Nourishing Ale, Sterling Bitter Ale, Anchor, Brewer's, Seal and Pabst.

A. A. ADAM, Norwich Town.
Telephone 447-12.

Celery Plants

at CARDWELL'S
3 to 9 Market Street

ALDI'S BOWLING ALLEYS

Bowling in 6 p. m., 5 cents a string.
257 Main Street,
MAY 14 M. ALDI & CO., Prop.

F. C. GEER,
TUNER

Phone 511 122 Prospect St.

The Plunge

A big "roomy" Sponge.
A cake of dainty Soap.
A full sized Bath Towel.
A tin of Talcum Powder, one of our special Bath Sprays and there is no regret for the season or lake.

Here's an outfit for $2.00 that will give you a hundred dollars worth of luxurious bathing.

LEROU, The Progressive
Druggist,

289 Main Street,
Opposite Chelsea Bank.

WHEN you want to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of the Bulletin.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Tuesday, July 23, 1912.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

The laws about town are recovering all their verdant freshness.

C. H. Nickerson, 123 Main St., will be closed until about Sept. 1st—adv.

While oil helps the roads, the automobile rarely fails to exclaim when he runs upon a freshly laid stretch.

Various cities in the state are being asked to participate in New Haven's big celebration in September.

The four battalions, Missouri, Ohio, Mississippi and Massachusetts, which have been in New London harbor for several days, sailed Monday.

The Pastors' Union of New Haven has decided that it is useless to try to influence public opinion against Sunday baseball in that city.

Governor Baldwin has received another petition asking for an investigation into more charges against the state dairy and cattle commission.

Norwich merchants got some of the trade with the sailors from the ships that came from New London last week, for many were up here to look around.

Williams' Root Beer is the best thirst quencher, tonic and appetizer. Make it at home, 2c a quart—adv.

The socialist party is making arrangements for a county union, meeting at Ocean Beach on Sunday, August 10, with W. F. Rhea as a speaker.

In many places through the surrounding country Sunday's rainfall was reported as being nearly an inch, in one or two cases it was over that.

Beginning the first of this week the Auditorium street is closed for three weeks during the hot weather. At the end of that time it will reopen as usual.

The lobster inspectors have not visited the Noank and nearby agencies yet, although along the shore of the western part of the state they have been busy.

Some photographers in Eastern Connecticut are interested in the national convention of Photographers at Philadelphia that is being held in Philadelphia this week.

Thursday of this week will be Veterans' day at the Plainville Camp ground. The program will be under the direction of the Connecticut Veterans' association.

Rev. F. W. Coleman, pastor of the Methodist church, occupied the pulpit at the First Baptist church Sunday morning in exchange with the Rev. F.
O. Cunningham.

A mail messenger from one of the battalions in the harbor mailed 5,000 post cards in one New London letter box. In one store a sailor spent $72 for photographic supplies.

The Hartford Maennerchor will hold an excursion down the river to New London Sunday, September 13, on the steamboat John Sylvester, which will accommodate 1,000 passengers.

The annual mid-summer field meeting of the Connecticut Poultry association will be held at the Connecticut Agricultural College, Storrs, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 23, 24 and 25.

The Norwich and Westerly Traction company expects to run trolley cars from Pleasant View to Westerly today. The schedule will not be altered, as heretofore there has been a wait at Pleasant View.

There will be a special meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality this (Tuesday) evening in St. Mary's school, at 5:30 o'clock—adv.

J. H. Fick of Bridgeport has purchased a very fast boat from New York. It is going in this race July 25 from New London to New Haven.
Charles D. Bolles of Uncasville is in charge of the boat.

It has been suggested by a leading New London business man that one night of the convention of the Atlantic Deep Waterways association be made a carnival night, after the style of the Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

The usual Eastern Connecticut N. E. O. P. field day will be omitted this year, but the lodges in this city and New London will make efforts to be well represented at the state field day at Savin Rock on August 2.

For selling milk not up to standard, three women, Nathan Richards, Charles A. Beckwith and Salvatore Priolo, were arrested in New London Monday morning. The last was fined $10 and the first $5, and both appealed.

To meet their pledge of $400 for the autumn campaign, the members of the New London Equal Franchise league have arranged for a large bridge party at the home of ex-Governor Thomas M. Waller Saturday.

The Baptist Young People's union of America has notified Rev. O. G.
Buddington, pastor of the United Baptist church, that the union of that church has won the international banner offered in the senior contest in the missionary course.

On Friday General Secretary Starkey of the Y. M. C. A. leaves for a two week trip with his family in Buffalo, and during his stay there he plans to visit the Boy Scout camp on Lake Erie, where over 100 boys are in camp.
Mr. Starkey has already gone to Buffalo.

The July "Crop Reporter" shows that the crop of the condition of important Connecticut crops was as follows: Tobacco, 93 per cent; potatoes, 87; corn, 82; oats, 84; rye, 51; timothy, 88; clover, 85; all time hay, 88; pasture, 85. The rain had improved them.

The trolley line to Crescent Beach is completed, and the first car made the trip Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock in charge of Supt. L. G. Rudd. Monday morning at 10 o'clock C. C. Elwell, engineer of the public utilities commission, made an official inspection of the line.

John A. Bessel, state engineer of New York, has promised as an additional feature of the Deeper Waterways convention, an illustrated lecture on the New York State barge canal, which John Lake Erie with New York City and when completed will have cost the state $101,000,000.

The American Baptist Year Book, recently issued, gives the following statistics for the past year on the Hartford Baptist association (churches, 30; ministers, 41; baptisms, 185; deaths, 75; total membership, 5,811; Sunday schools, 35; officers and teachers, 426; scholars, 2,915; total value of church property, $397,015).

Adjutant General Cole issued orders that if officers of the medical corps, the medical reserve corps and past surgeons, before examining recruits, ascertain if the applicant has been examined physically for enlistment in the Connecticut National Guard, or the army or navy within three months, that the applicant is to be made without preliminary

PERSONAL.

Michael Schwartz is the guest of relatives in New York City.

Fred DiLomba of New York is visiting his parents on Union street.

Lincoln G. Luce of Niantic spent Sunday with friends in Norwich.

Leslie George is spending the summer with friends at Kiteauag.

Edward B. Worthington left Monday for a short stay at Staten Island.

Herman Budnick has returned from a visit with friends at Watch Hill.

Mrs. Hattie Sargent of Pearl street is visiting relatives at Lord's Point.

Abner Schwartz left Monday to attend the furniture exposition at New York.

Mrs. Charles Kensler of New York has returned from visiting friends in town.

Miss Tessie Burdick of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. John Kenyon of Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huribut of New York have returned from visiting relatives in town.

The Misses Beatrice and Madeline Peterson of the terrace are visiting relatives in Hartford.

Master Hugh Dolan of New York is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Dolan of Lake street.

Miss Annie Browning of New Haven is the guest of Mr. Robert Champlin of Gardner's court.

Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Kooner have returned from a three weeks' stay at their cottage at Gardner Lake.

A. M. Harrington of Norwich has returned after a two weeks' stay at the Ocean View house, Ocean Beach.

Miss Almira Frink of Asylum street is the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. F.
O. Cunningham at Broad Brook farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell and family of Fairmount street left Monday to spend the summer with relatives in Hadlyme.

John D. Oat of Pearl street spent Sunday with his family at Pleasure Beach, where they have had a cottage for the month of July.

Miss Isabelle Douglas of Elm street left Monday for a several weeks' visit with Mrs. William Waterman of Mon-treat avenue, New London.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kooner of West Main street have returned after a three weeks' stay at their cottage, Lake View, at Gardner Lake.

Mrs. G. A. Burlingham has returned from her late visit to Providence, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Fred Machon, who will spend a short time with her at her home on Maple street.

Noves B. Allyn of Gates Ferry, accompanied by Charles E. Brown of Norwich, were recent guests of Mr.
Allyn's niece, Mrs. John Griswold of New London, at a picnic party at her cottage at Niantic.

Peter Shahan has returned to his home after a six weeks' visit in Cork, Ireland. Mr. Shahan said that the Irish people are very happy and are greatly improved since his last visit there 29 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Olcott of Nelson place and daughter, Mrs. Estelle Crawford, with Mrs. Harry Judd and daughter, Miss Dorothea Judd, of Trenton, N. J., and Lake Maskepaug for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hamilton and daughters, the Misses Helen and Ruth, of Norwich, are at Gates Ferry to spend the remainder of the season at the Webb estate. The second of the Thatcher Oils and family who have occupied the cottage since the first of the month, have returned to their home in Norwich.

WEDDINGS.

Kaufman-Ryther.

The Evergreens, the summer home at Crescent beach of Mr. and Mrs.
Orman E. Ryther of Providence, formerly of New York, were the scene of a quiet but charming wedding on Monday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Clarice Emily Ryther and Joseph Paul Kaufman, son of Rev. and Mrs. Matthias S. Kaufman, D. D., of Providence, also formerly of this city, were united in marriage. It was a quiet ceremony, performed at 4 o'clock by Dr. Kaufman in the presence of the members of the immediate families.

The bride wore a gown of blue silk, trimmed with lace, and she carried brides' roses. Her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Ruth Elizabeth, was charmingly gowned in blue. Moss, lilacs and lilies were effectively used in the floral decorations.

The bride is a delightful young woman, who has a host of friends in Norwich. She is a graduate of the Norwich Free academy in the class of 1907 and of the Woman's College of Brown university in 1912. Her course was distinguished by unusual honors, both in scholarship and extra curricular.

Mr. Kaufman is a Yale man, B.A.
1903, and M. A. 1910, and he has been studying at Harvard university for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.
He has been appointed Harvard lecturer in English for the coming year at the University of Bordeaux, France.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman sail on Saturday morning for the coast, accompanied by Miss Ryther and her sister, Miss Cussandra, and upon their return in Glasgow, they will begin a tour of Scotland and England, later crossing to the continent. He begins his lecturing tour at Glasgow, where on the expiration of his year abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Kaufman will return to Cambridge in order that he may secure the doctor's degree. He has already proved a successful teacher, at Lafayette, and his scholarship at Yale and Harvard has been brilliant.

Biologlowy-Majewski.

The marriage of Francis Biologlowy and Miss Louisa Majewski, both residents of this city, took place Monday morning at 8 o'clock, St. Joseph's church, the pastor, Rev. J. J. Ambet, officiating. There was a large attendance of friends at the church and also at the wedding party which followed at the home of the bride, No.
167 Cliff street. The groom is employed as a butcher and resides at No.
53 North Main street. Both bride and groom are natives of Poland, where they were born 21 years ago.

Olekiewicz-Suchwalska.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St.
Joseph's church Leo Olekiewicz of No.
544 Boswell avenue and Miss Pelagia Suchwalska of No. 9 Summit street were united in marriage by the Rev.
Rev. J. J. Ambet. The groom is 22 and the bride 21, and both are natives of Poland. The groom is employed as a waiter. A reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony.

Home on Elks' Convention.

Allen C. Matthews, the delegate from Norwich, before leaving for the Elks convention at Portland, Ore., reached home Monday. He stopped over in New York a day or two, where Mrs.
Matthews met him, and returned with him Monday night.

TAXABLE LIST OF THE TOWNS

Figures Shown by Assessors and Board of Equalization—
New London County Total is $76,557,224—New Haven Leads State—$1,041,334,019 is Grand Total For Connecticut.

Details on the grand lists of all the towns of the state are shown in Tax Commissioner Corbin's annual report on the assessment and collection of taxes which he has just issued. Below are given, for New London, Windham and Tolland counties, the grand lists of every town, showing first the list as returned by the assessors and then as fixed by the board of equalization:

Abstract of Taxable Property, List of 1911.

Counties.

Hartford $222,329,250 $348,504,560
New Haven 298,573,355 312,173,885
New London 62,352,224 76,557,224
Fairfield 245,356,881 264,636,881 Windham 25,139,521 33,655,521
Litchfield 19,713,009 27,785,009
Middlesex 29,737,526 39,577,526
Tolland 15,386,193 17,481,193

Totals $948,359,019 $1,041,334,019

The town of New London shows the largest total in New London county with $76,557,224, and Norwich is next with $23,354,025. The town of Windham with figures of $33,655,521 and Putnam comes next with $25,139,521.

Norwich and New London.

In the figures for Norwich are shown 4,243 dwellings valued at $7, 682,041, compared to 3,497 in New London valued at $11,459,957. Norwich has 12,252 acres of woodland, valued at $586,553, and for the same item New London shows 525 acres at $540,000.
Stores in the two towns compare as follows: Norwich, 1,235, valued at $1,235,000; New London, 273 at $2,827,550.

In mills, manufacturing and distilleries Norwich reports 47 valued at $4, 044,000 and New London has 151 at a valuation of $1,914,400.

Horses and mules owned in Norwich are reported at 1,105 valued at $23,340 and New London has 483 valued at $10,540.

Over exemption Norwich shows $360, New London has $75. Wagons, automobiles and bicycles are $151,575 in value in Norwich and $177,069 in New London.

Putnam and Windham.

In Windham county, containing the cities of Willimantic and Putnam, the towns of Windham and Putnam, 1,800 dwellings valued at $2,304,000 are shown in Windham and 1,235 in Putnam valued at $1,571,440. Windham's acreage is 13,325 with $248,907 in value and Putnam shows 2,475 at $26,188.

The Windham corporation shows 68 valued at $148,135 as compared with 72 stores in Putnam valued at $321,460.

Mills, manufacturing and distilleries in Windham are 39 in number valued at $2,470,155, and in Putnam 43 at $695,455.

There are 519 horses and mules valued at $22,565 and 151 neat cattle at $25,382 owned in Windham. The same items in Putnam show 529 horses, etc.
at $27,285 and 688 neat cattle at $12, 552.

The sheep, swine, goats and poultry over exemption owned in Windham are worth $775 and in Putnam $360. Farming tools, etc. in Windham are $19,358 and in Putnam $16,423.

Wagons, automobiles and bicycles, having $27,775 in value to $50,270.

Raised by Equalization Board.

The board of equalization raised the amount submitted by the assessors to $14,235,000 in New London county, $8, 335,000 in Windham county and $2, 095,000 in Tolland county.

Andover $184,745 $229,745 Bolton 247,796 277,796
Columbia 247,796 277,796
Canaan 247,796 277,796
Ellington 1,026,744 1,276,744
Hebron 444,726 484,726
Stafford 715,538 801,538
Stafford 715,538 801,538
Stafford 715,538 801,538
Tolland 332,999 482,999
Union 187,610 212,610
Vernon 632,241 782,241
Willington 356,903 396,903

Totals $15,386,193 $17,481,193

AUDITORIUM HOTEL

THE RIGHT PLACE.
Herman H. Loeb, First to Register, Lingered Over Several Days.

Herman H. Loeb, the traveling representative of a large and important company of New York, who had the distinction of being the first to register at Shannon's new Auditorium hotel when it opened last week, left Monday on a business trip for Winsted, having found it so enjoyable here that he stayed over three days beyond what he had originally intended.

Before Mr. Loeb went away he took the opportunity to congratulate Manager Frank Wright upon the new hotel, telling him it was finely appointed, and that the hotel had every convenience for the traveling man, and beyond question it was the best thing that had ever happened in Norwich.

Mr. Loeb said that it was his intention to come back here when not on a business trip and he hoped to spend at least one week of a vacation here at some time.

FIGHT IN LUNCH WAGON.

Chicopee Man Seriously Hurt in New London—Soldier Assaulted Disappeared.

As the result of a fight in a lunch wagon in New London Monday night, Joseph Shannon of Chicopee, Mass., is in the hospital with injuries that may result in death, and the police are searching for his alleged assailant, who is said to be a United States soldier from Fort Wright. It is said the soldier struck the Chicopee man in the face and knocked him through the open door of the wagon. The victim struck upon his head and it is feared his skull is fractured. The soldier disappeared after the fight. At a late hour last night Shannon was said to be dying.

WEEK END CAMP.

Y. M. C. A. Inaugurating New Feature—Located at Gardner's Lake.

On Saturday the Y. M. C. A. will open a week end camp at Gardner's lake for members of the association who desire to spend Saturday and Sunday or a part of either day at the camp. The camp will be open each week end for the rest of the summer and will accommodate a good number.
The only expense will be for the provisions. It is planned to have a baseball game or some other athletic contest each Saturday. This Saturday there will be a game between the Clippers and the baseball nine representing the Brooklyn Central Park Physical Director Pease will have charge of the camp.

In the City Court.

In the city court on Monday morning Fred Lowry of Warren, R. I., charged with intoxication and resisting an officer was fined $15 and costs, amounting to $26.34. He had no money to pay and went to jail. Daniel Cummings of Mooseup, similarly accused, was also fined $15 and costs, amounting to $26.12. He also went to jail. When arrested Cummings gave the name of Daniel Campbell.

Meech House Sold.

Saturday afternoon Auctioneer
George W. Roder sold the Meech house at No. 18 Union street for $2,500.
There was a large number present.
Cornelius Collins bid $2,000 for the house and George E. Hannis raised the bid to $2,500. As there were no other bids, the house was sold to him for that sum. The house has 13 rooms and has been occupied by Miss Lizzie Meech for a number of years.

Miss J. W.